Things Are Changed by a Faith that Defies Obstacles and Laughs at Impossibilities
2014 VISIONARY LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
APRIL 3 & 4
Thursday 7pm & Friday 10am & 7pm

Dear Friends,

I hope that you are making plans to attend my 2014 Visionary Leadership Conference at JDM International Headquarters in the New Orleans area. The primary focus of this annual event is to strengthen your faith and reinforce the great vision that God has placed in your heart. Leaders often tell me that they leave this meeting totally inspired and charged up to run with their vision. The quotes from great leaders on the next page blessed me so much that I wanted to share them with you this month.

And remember, this conference is not just for church leaders! No matter who you are or what you do, if you are a believer, then you are a leader in this world. It is my prayer that you will be able to join me at this life-changing conference.

Expecting Great Things,
Jesse

What Great Leaders are Saying About the Visionary Leadership Conference…

“Attending the Visionary Leadership Conference is a ‘must’ for any Pastor, minister, leader, or leadership team desiring to maximize their position and impact as a leader. This conference produces an atmosphere that allows you to expand your vision while encouraging your faith to believe God to excel beyond what you could have dreamed. Being in the presence of such a powerful visionary as Dr. Jesse Duplantis is an awesome opportunity you don’t want to miss.”

“The Visionary Leadership Conference has challenged us personally to grow beyond our comfort zone and to step into the vision God has for us. We were inspired to believe God for the impossible, do the supernatural, and walk in the prosperity that God has for us. We have seen our ministry grow from one campus to five, our resources increase by 25% in the midst of an economic downturn, and a greater measure of peace as we walk out the will of God. We have attended three of these life-changing conferences and would recommend every visionary leader to put this in their annual calendar as a conference to attend. This is not for the faint-hearted, but for those who want to walk in the supernatural as God’s visionary.”

“If you’re not talking about your vision, your vision is talking about you!” We were rocked by this statement the moment we first heard it at our first JDM Visionary Leadership Conference. We have been encouraged and driven toward success by this and other principles that we have learned from Jesse. The opportunity to associate and build relationships with Jesse and Cathy, their staff, and other entrepreneurs and ministers at the Visionary Leadership Conferences has been an integral part of our personal growth. Because of this association and our partnership with JDM, our business is experiencing continual growth, my career continues to flourish, and our children are developing as future leaders. We are very grateful for the many benefits of our partnership with JDM and for being stretched each year at the JDM Visionary Leadership Conference.”

“Brother Jesse is definitely a visionary. His leadership conference is designed to inspire and inform leaders how to think bigger, reach further, and do the greater works. Leaders must guard against complacency, comfort, and living on past accomplishments. Jesse’s Visionary Leadership Conference will not only impart vision but provide inspiration and information concerning the work of the ministry. Jeanne and I have attended the visionary leadership conference each year. We come away motivated and educated to do more than we have ever done before. “If you have always wanted to know how Jesse thinks and what moves his ministry beyond the norm, then make plans to attend this year’s Visionary Leadership Conference.”

LIVING IN THE FAITH ZONE

by Jesse Duplantis
Have you given much thought to time zones? Thousands of people might be reading this article at exactly the same time, yet be in different time zones. Think about that: Same time, different time zones. Hold on to your hat. I want you to get spiritual for a moment. Did you know there is a similar thing that happens in the spirit? According to the Bible, all Christians are members of one body. We are part of the body of Christ. We are members of one Church. We pray to one God. We live by one Bible. We may even be standing side-by-side singing the same hymn, yet be in different spiritual zones.

That’s the reason the blessings of God fall all over one Christian while trouble seems to follow another. What spiritual zone are you living in right now?

“Brother Jesse, I’ve never heard of a spiritual zone before,” someone said. “Are you sure that’s in the Bible?”

Yeah, I’m sure. Look at Hebrews 11:6, “But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.”

According to this verse, we can’t please God unless we’re in faith. That means everything we do that stems from faith pleases God. But if we make one move away from faith, we’ve stepped over an invisible line, much like that of a time zone. It means we’ve stepped out of the faith zone.

“Wait a minute, Brother Jesse,” you might say, “if we’re out of faith, what zone are we in?”

That depends on what motive prompted that step. Your mind might have interrupted your heart and caused you to step over into the doubt zone. Travel in doubt long enough and you’ll end up in the unbelief zone. You may have set yourself up as the judge and stepped over into the criticism zone or the offense zone.

Think of the faith zone as the demilitarized zone: It’s the only safe place to live. That’s why Satan works double time to get you out of faith and over into his territory. Trust me; if you’ve stumbled into offense, you’re in enemy territory.

There’s a very good reason why the Bible warns us to put on our armor and use our weapons—we’re engaged in war! But God told us exactly how we are to overcome the world:

Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth Him that begat loveth Him also that is begotten of Him.

By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep His commandments.

For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments: and His commandments are not grievous.

For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

1 John 5:1-4

Nothing is Achieved Without Faith
Nothing is Impossible With Faith

There is only one place from which you can overcome the world and that’s the faith zone. You see, when you live in the faith zone, you’re cooking. You’re like Michael Jordan when he was in the zone, slamming the baskets and building the score.

People ask me, “Why are you into this faith stuff?”

I’ll tell you the same thing I tell them: Nothing is achieved without faith, and nothing is impossible with faith. I’ve lived in the doubt zone. I’ve lived in the unbelief zone. I’ve lived in the drug and alcohol zone. But I prefer to live in the faith zone. Why? Because faith produces things and it pleases God.

If I allowed myself to dwell on the finances I need to meet my budget every month, I’d go into the depression zone. I’ve been asked, “Don’t you get nervous about it?”

No, I don’t. First, there’s no way I can generate the kind of cash flow needed each month for television production and airtime, magazine printing and postage, evangelistic meetings, and the many other outreaches of this ministry. Second, I refuse to walk into the depression zone.

“Well, what makes it work?”

What makes it work is 1 John 5:4: “For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world….” I’ve been born of God, and the victory that overcomes the world is my faith!

The Bible says that every man has been given the measure of faith (Romans 12:3). Have faith in your faith and step over into the faith zone. When you do, you’ll have to delete some words from your vocabulary. One of them is the word “impossible.” Nothing is impossible when you live in the faith zone.

One sure way to know you’re living in the faith zone is to move when God tells you to do something. That’s the way I function. God never checks my bank account before He tells me to do something. He just says, “Let’s do it!” You see, God lives in the faith zone all the time.

A few years ago, God told me to add $85,000 to my budget in Europe. I called my staff in my European office in Bath, England and said, “Praise God, we added $85,000 to the budget just now.”

“We don’t need the American office sending money over here,” my director said, “We can believe God for it!”

I thought, Lord, he’s living in the faith zone! You can probably figure out the rest of the story...they made their budget! That didn’t just happen. They prayed in faith, trusting God. You can do the same thing, but you can’t do it with the word “impossible” in your vocabulary.

Faith is the Ultimate Triumph

Faith has led many people to victory against overwhelming odds. A woman approached me once and said, “Brother Jesse, we’ve been believing God for a baby for years, but we haven’t got one.”

“The problem with you is that you’re going by what you see instead of what God sees,” I said.

“Yes,” she agreed, “but I’ve had endometriosis and it scarred my body.”

“I don’t deny that,” I said, “I just deny its right over you. You want a baby? You’ll have a baby!”

“We want twins!” her husband said. Bless God, go for the double portion!

Faith will lead you to the ultimate triumph if you don’t give up. It doesn’t matter if you’re believing God for a baby against all odds—faith will make you a winner every time. I firmly believe that one day that woman will come back to me and cry out, “No more babies! Please!”

Don’t laugh, that happened to some friends of mine. They wanted a baby in the worst way. My friend said, “Jesse, my wife can’t have a baby.”

“That’s what the doctors say. What did God say?” I asked. He didn’t know, so I told him. “God said to be fruitful and multiply,” I said. “Your wife is going to have more babies than you can shake a stick at!”

“We’ve been married so long, and it isn’t happening,” he complained.

“Shut up!” I told him. “It’s not happening because of your mouth. Now get in the faith zone!”

Eleven months later, another baby came along. About a year later, the third baby was born. He came to my house and said, “We gotta stop this!”

Not his wife. She said, “Let me keep having babies. I want them all!”

What happened? They got in the zone.

You see, it’s usually our own soul that makes us stumble into doubt. But there is an antidote for that kind of soul sickness: The higher your thoughts of Jesus, the greater His power over your soul.

Write that down and never forget it. You’ve got to get your thoughts higher where Jesus is concerned. The problem with most people is that they live their Christian lives at the foot of the cross. It’s the wonderful place where you were born again. That’s where your body was healed.

But you can’t live at the bottom of the cross. You’ve got to climb it!

Why? Because He isn’t on the cross anymore. He’s seated at the right hand of the Father in heavenly places. You need to look at your situation from where He’s sitting today. When you start climbing, you see what God sees. The higher your thoughts of Jesus, the greater His power over your soul.

Faith Isn’t a Comfort, It’s a Challenge

One of the most wonderful things faith accomplishes is that it creates tension in your soul. “Brother Jesse,” someone said, “I’ve got enough tension in my life. Why would I need more?”

This kind of tension is good for you. Faith breaks the peace between what is and what ought to be. Isn’t that wonderful to know? Sometimes we get too comfortable with what is. Without faith, we would miss what God has for us that isn’t yet.

That’s the reason faith doesn’t comfort you where you are. It challenges you to be where you should be.

How did I get married and finally become a man of God? Cathy had faith to believe for me. And it wasn’t an easy task! I’ve been told that I was born sinning. I was full of the devil.

I also had two praying grandmothers. Both of them used to say, “Jesse, we don’t want you to go to hell. Why don’t you marry a girl in the church?”

“I want me a Delilah!” I told them. “I’m going among the Philistines to get one.”

“Oh, Jesus! Take us now!” they would cry. “Take us now!”

Faith Defies Obstacles and Laughs at Impossibilities

Every one of us has been given the measure of faith. Are you using your faith to conquer? Things are changed by a faith that defies obstacles and laughs at impossibilities. That’s why certain words set me off like, “You can’t do that!”

Those are fighting words. When I hear them, faith rises up in me and I say, “Watch me!” In case you think that’s arrogance, it’s not. That’s Jesus! He rises up on the inside of Jesse and says, “Watch out!”

Another thing faith does is that it changes a dream into reality. My mother had a dream: She dreamed I would get saved. Both of my grandmothers had a dream for my life. Things looked bad for years, but they wouldn’t give up on their dream.

While they were dreaming, I was taking a thermos of gin to school. My teachers thought it was cream soda. By midmorning, I was happy. By afternoon, I was stone drunk. One time, my algebra teacher slapped my hand with a ruler then ordered me to the principal’s office. It didn’t matter to me; I was happy.

“Come on, mama,” I said, grabbing that seventy-year-old woman. “Let’s go!”

“I’d beat you if I didn’t like you so much,” she said.

I was an impossible case—a challenge to their faith. But my grandmother on my mother’s side saw me preach the Gospel before she went home to be with the Lord. “The Lord used every ounce of Jesus’ blood to get rid of Jesse’s sin,” she said. “Now I can go home in peace.”

Faith is an Invitation for Real Contact With God

I’m convinced that the devil works overtime trying to convince Christians that faith in God won’t work. Why is he so scared? Because he knows that faith is an invitation for real contact with God.

My religious upbringing left me confused about contact with God. When I went to the Catholic church, I was told I couldn’t talk to God. I had to go through the priest.

When my parents switched to the Baptist church, I didn’t want to talk to God. They said after you get saved, God would let the devil beat your brains out. When we joined the Pentecostal church, they said, “You never know what God’s gonna do!” They said that because they were so broke they didn’t know what else to say.

That’s why I was confused when I gave my life to Jesus. Then, one day, I read this in the Bible: “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report” (Hebrews 11:1-2).

When I read that, I just jumped out by faith and said, “Hey, God!” I didn’t think I would hear a response, so I was stunned when He answered, “Hey, Jesse.”
He talked to me. I scrambled trying to think of what I would say.

“Hey, God…You’re not mad are You?”

“No,” He said, “And I’m not broke either.”

Faith is not an Intellectual Acceptance of a Theological Proposition

I had a tension in my soul that was driving me from what was to what ought to be. I was trying to find God. I tried to find Him intellectually, but I want to clear up a big misunderstanding: Faith isn’t an intellectual acceptance of a theological proposition. Although that’s what most people think it is. Real faith always involves the heart as well as the head. It infuses courage, molds character, and directs conduct.

We try to get philosophical to find God, but that isn’t the way. You and I have to find God through His Son. Why? Because God is and always will be a Family Man. I’ll give you another bit of advice: If you want to live in the faith zone, you’ve got to get away from prejudice because everyone who is born of God is in the family. That means male and female, black, white, yellow, red, brown, and all the colors in between. That means laying an ax to the root of strife and division. We’re a family and it’s time we started acting like one.

Once, when Jodi was about six years old, I was sitting at the breakfast table and I’d gotten over into the flesh. “I don’t know what I’m gonna do,” I complained.

Jodi looked up at me and said, “Well, Dad, if you don’t know what to do, go listen to your tapes and you’ll find out.”

That quickened faith in me. The kid was living in the faith zone!

I got a letter one time from a little boy who sent me a dollar. “My mom and daddy don’t believe nothing,” he said. “So I’m sowing this seed for my parents because they don’t have enough sense to believe God.”

That kid figured out something his parents couldn’t grasp.

Another little boy told a pastor friend of mine, “I just got a brand new bike. I was gonna sell my other one, then I heard Brother Jesse say the value of a seed is greater than the value of a sale. So I want to plant this bike in the ministry. Give it to somebody who doesn’t have a bike.”

This was a small boy. A child! He already understood what it took me years to learn—the principle of seed turned to harvest.

Years before I went on television, I was saving money toward that dream. Finally, the day came when I’d saved up enough for one year of television time. I called up the network and told them I was ready to negotiate a contract, but the Lord interrupted me. He said, “Jesse. I’d like to talk to you.”

“Yes, Lord.”

“I’ll tell you what I want you to do with that money. I want you to give it away.”

“No, no!” I gasped. “You don’t want to do that.”

“Give it to their building fund.”

“No! Don’t You know how hard that was for me to believe for that much money?”

“It wasn’t hard for Me at all.”

“Lord, You’re gonna delay the television debut.”

“For life if you keep talking like that!”

“Oh, Jesus, forgive me!” I cut a check for the entire amount that I had saved over the years for television and gave it to that church. In my mind, I was thinking, I gave up Whoppers. I ate those stale little cheeseburgers with half a pickle just to save money.

But do you know what God did with that seed? Today we’re on thousands of television stations. Right now I am preaching in different time zones around the world in different languages. Now that’s a harvest!

“You know things happen in this life, Brother Jesse,” someone said. “In this world we have tribulation.”

Yes, we will have tribulation in this world, but that isn’t the end of the verse. It goes on to say, “...but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world” (John 16:33).

How did Jesus overcome the world? Exactly the same way God expects you and I to do it—by living in the faith zone!

Nothing is achieved without faith and nothing is impossible with faith… What has faith done in YOUR life?

Here are a few of the inspiring responses we received when I posted this question on Facebook:

Terry: My faith got me through cancer. By accident through an MRI a mass was found on my kidney. I had surgery to remove it and the results were malignant. I am completely cancer free now. I am a miracle because of my faith!

Tim: Faith allowed God to heal me of stage 4 throat cancer! Faith also opened doors for me to travel and share this healing testimony in this New Year!

Teri: My faith is everything to me. It has given me hope. Without hope I would have given up a long time ago!

Joe: Faith delivered me from drugs and alcohol. I’ve been clean over 11 years!

Eric: By faith I made it through utter chaos without fear. Faith gave me peace!

Word of the Week with Jesse
Log on to jdm.org every Monday for an inspiring “word” that will lead you to victory all week long!
Success: Many people get upset when a Christian tries to get it, but success is not a bad word. In fact, the first time it was used in the Bible was by God to Joshua after the death of Moses.

In the first chapter of Joshua, verses eight and nine, God said, “This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.”

Joshua must have had concerns about stepping into Moses’ shoes as leader of Israel. Wouldn’t you? After all, Moses was the long awaited deliverer, miracle-worker, and the man that spoke face to face with God. But, now, God was speaking to Joshua and telling him how to succeed. And as it is with us today, prosperity and success was a direct result of following God’s Word.

I believe that wisdom and knowledge from God’s Word can enable each of us to rise to the top, regardless of obstacles or recessions. When you need favor, wisdom, protection, or prosperity, you know how to pray effectively and receive it. If sickness attacks your body, you apply the Word of God and change it with your faith. You are healed. No matter where you go or what you come into contact with, you know how to come out victorious. Or as we say in South Louisiana, “If you fall in an outhouse, you come out smelling like a rose.”

1. Essentials

God wants you to be a success and has provided you with the essentials you need to succeed in this life. You see, His plan of salvation includes more than eternal life and a mansion in Heaven. As a member of the family of God, you have access to benefits that provide for everything you could ever need in this life (2 Peter 1:3). In fact, the moment you were born again, you were issued a suit of armor designed by God Himself. From the top of your head to the soles of your feet, you are equipped with supernatural clothing that is impenetrable by the enemy. I like to think of it as my faith suit.

Ephesians chapter six describes it this way:

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might.
Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.
Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;
And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace;
Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.
Ephesians 6:10-17

Have you ever tried to dress a child that is distracted or refuses to help while you are dressing them? It can be very frustrating. But when that same child is excited about going somewhere, they will tear off their pajamas, throw on their play clothes, and look for someone to help with the buttons and laces. Big difference!
God has provided this awesome suit of armor so that you can successfully “stand against the wiles of the devil.” But it can’t help you unless you wear it. It is your responsibility to accept it and put it on. Romans 13:12 tells us, “The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.”

How do you do that? You read God’s Word and accept it by faith. You meditate on it day and night and don’t let it depart from your mouth. Follow God’s instructions to Joshua and you will be a success going somewhere to happen. You will be equipped for victory!

2. Accessorize

Once you are suited with God’s armor, you can browse through His Word for ways to add to your faith suit. 2 Peter 1:4-8 says, “Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

What an awesome promise! If virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, and love (charity) is in you abundantly, you will bear fruit. You will succeed!

3. One Last Look

Mirrors are wonderful things. If you take the time to use them, they will reveal things that need to be fixed and save you from embarrassing situations. You will be able to see the lettuce in your teeth, ketchup on your cheek, or the stain on your tie. But most importantly, it will reveal the hem of your dress inside your pantyhose! But you have to look in the mirror or you will be exposed.

That’s what happened to me years ago. The bathroom of the church I was visiting did not have a full-length mirror, so I just moved my hand down the back of my skirt to make sure everything was in place. The suit that I was wearing had a lining and two layers of peach chiffon in the skirt, so I did not realize that everything except the top outer sheer layer was inside my pantyhose. I walked all the way up the aisle of the church to the front pew before someone told me what had happened. Since that time, I have come to understand how important it is to take one last look in the mirror before heading out the door.

The point? Don’t take things for granted. The Word of God is our mirror and before you begin anything, always take one last look and allow it to reveal things that you may need to adjust. James 1:23-25 says, “For if any be a hearer of the Word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.”

God’s Word will reveal the way for you to succeed. Study and do what it says and you will never be ashamed (2 Timothy 2:15). You will know where to go and what to do when you get there. You will be blessed and find good success.

Today, there are over 7 billion people on the earth. So many of them are searching for peace and they’re looking for purpose. They’re hungry for something authentic to believe in. We know the One they seek and we’re determined to proclaim what they’re yearning for: Jesus Christ!

The vision of Jesse Duplantis Ministries has always been World Evangelism. We’ve been going non-stop, rescuing souls from the pit of hell and introducing the lost to Christ in meetings across the globe for over 36 years. We’ve passionately obeyed the Lord’s command to “Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature,” and our commitment has never wavered. During 2014, we’ll be traveling throughout the United States and other areas of the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We believe this year we’re facing the greatest harvest of souls known to the world and, through the Go Ye Outreach, we are determined to get the job done!

Please pray for our Go Ye Outreach. We’re believing God that our evangelistic meetings will take the Gospel further than we’ve ever gone before. As you’ll see in the following testimonies, the Go Ye Outreach is truly reaching people and changing lives, one soul at a time!

Indiana

I was in your service in Muncie, Indiana. I had a bone spur and a cyst on my wrist. Christ healed my right hand. Now I do not need surgery! Praise the Lord!

Ohio

We traveled over two hours to attend Jesse’s meeting in Springfield, Ohio. We took a couple that had never attended church. One is a recovering cocaine addict (clean just over a year) and the other has suffered unimaginable tragedies in her life. They won’t go to church because they feel people will judge them.

They both gave their lives to Jesus when Jesse gave the invitation! Praise God! They both agreed that Jesus, through Jesse, allowed them to let their guard down and let Jesus in.

Broadcasting the Gospel of Christ to the Earth

The Broadcast Earth Outreach is an ongoing project that is fueling and accelerating the way we broadcast the Gospel through JDM-TV, JDM.org, Social Media, and more. With the amazing advances in technology today and the faithful support of Partners and friends like you, we’re circling the globe with the Good News of Christ 24/7. Today, we are reaching the unreachable for Jesus like never before!

JDM-TV:
- Reaching 2.7 billion potential viewers worldwide—302 million in the USA alone
- Reached an additional 6 million people in 2013
- Airing in 255 countries
- JDM on satellite reaches every inch of planet Earth
- Invested over $6 million into television in 2012 & 2013

JDM.org
- Over 1.5 million visitors in 190 countries have watched JDM programming online to date
- Many countries such as China, Iran, and Egypt, where the Gospel is forbidden, are watching and receiving the Good News of Christ
- Audio/Video Podcasts
- Live Webcasts of JDM special events
- Free JDM App has had nearly 1 million views since it launched in June, 2013

Social Media—A growing outreach that encourages and ministers 24/7:
- Over 1.1 million people view our posts on Facebook each week
- Nearly 1.5 million views on YouTube
- 77,000 followers on Twitter
- Google+ is our newest addition to this outreach

Our Broadcast Earth Outreach is literally evangelizing every inch of the earth at every moment of the day. Please pray for us as we continue to increase our efforts through this outreach. Below are testimonies showing how the Broadcast Earth Outreach is reaching people and changing lives, one soul at a time.

England
I just wanted to thank you and thank God for you, for you have been a shining light in my darkness. When I fear I am lost, your TV broadcast always says something to let me know that the Lord hasn’t forgotten me. Thank you, Jesse, and may God continue to bless you and your ministry!

Idaho
I was suicidal, but watching Jesse on the Internet made me laugh so hard that the spirit of depression left me. Thank you!
At a time when anger at the multi-million dollar salaries of many executives is at an all time high, while economic crisis sweeps across the globe, and the “wealth-gap” between the super rich and super poor has widened, what should Christians conclude about economic inequality? Let’s agree that people should be disgusted by greed and dishonesty, and let’s agree that we should have the same concern for the poor as Jesus, but is economic inequality by itself a form of injustice? Is it immoral or excessive to be rich, especially if others are suffering in poverty? Should there be an equal distribution of assets among all?
If so, couldn’t it be wrongly assumed that God is unrighteous, immoral, and excessive?
After all, He is unimaginably wealthy while millions of people suffer in severe poverty.

For example, God makes His streets of gold (Revelation 21:21). And it’s not some kind of “spiritual gold.” In fact, when the Bible lists the materials from which the heavenly city is constructed, it never places the adjective “spiritual” in front of any of the building materials. Why would scripture use literal terminology to describe spiritual realities without somehow indicating that the terms being used are figurative? To the contrary, the scripture’s descriptions of the New Jerusalem are not abstract but concrete.

The Bible says that the gold used in the city’s construction is so “pure” that it’s transparent (Revelation 21:18, 21). It says the foundations of the city’s walls are embedded with “gems” (jasper, sapphire, agate, emerald, onyx, carnelian, chrysolite, beryl, topaz, chrysoprase, jacinth, amethyst) that are “precious”—meaning costly or valuable (Revelation 21:19-20). Each of the four exterior walls surrounding the city are more than 20 stories high, over 200 feet thick, about 1,380 miles long, and are all made of solid “jasper” (Revelation 21:18). Every wall has three gates, and all the gates are made from one “single pearl” each (Revelation 21:21). On a side note, doesn’t it make you wonder where He found such colossal oysters?

The city is 1,380 miles cubed (that’s over 2.6 billion miles of space) all made from gold that is so pure, so refined, that it is as transparent as crystal (Revelation 21:16,18 CEV). The New Jerusalem is the single most majestic display of wealth in the universe—and it must be a material reality. How else could it come “down out of Heaven” and make the “new earth” its new location (Revelation 21:1-2)? Now, begin to imagine the enormous scope and value of all the furnishings needed to fill the estates and mansions, all the art, all the libraries and their contents, all the landscaping and plants, all the animals, all the infrastructure of the city, and everything else that makes a city not only livable, but enjoyable and beautiful.

If being rich while others are poor is wrong, then it would be excessively wrong, even narcissistically wrong, to make a heavenly city of the greatest scope out of the purest gold, while millions of people die from malnutrition each year. To continue to put things in perspective, if you were to have an average two-car driveway paved with concrete, you would need approximately 26,700 lbs. of dry concrete mix. The equivalent weight in 24K gold (which is 99.99% pure, but still not transparently pure) would cost nearly $500,000,000.00. And, unlike a driveway or a street on Earth, Heaven’s main thoroughfare (which would have to be at least 1,380 miles long to go through the first level of the city) isn’t referred to as paved—the scripture says, “the main street of the city was pure gold” (Revelation 21:21 MSG). Unlike a concrete street, which is dirt covered with a slab of concrete, the New Jerusalem’s main street is pure gold through and through. Only Heaven knows how thick and wide the street is, not to mention whether it winds through the length and width of the city, or even upward through the city’s heights.

I once heard Dr. Jesse Duplantis say, “Why would God go to such great lengths to describe the extravagance and wealth of Heaven? One reason is because all scripture is profitable for instruction and doctrine. This passage is meant to teach us something about God that we can apply to our lives.” Among many other truths, one obvious lesson to be learned is that God is anything but poor.

There are other passages of scripture where God’s vast wealth is also indicated. Haggai 2:8 says, “The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, saith the LORD of hosts.” Psalm 50:10,12 NLT says, “For all the animals of the forest are Mine, and I own the cattle on a thousand hills…all the world is Mine and everything in it.” Psalm 115:16 says, “The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD’S.”

As to the wealth of the heavens, scientists now say that four carat diamonds are falling as rain on Saturn and Jupiter—with over 20,000 lbs. of diamonds a year being created on Saturn alone—eventually melting into seas of liquid diamond. Astronomers have found a planet twice the size of Earth made entirely of diamond. An asteroid impact in Russia left trillions of carats of diamonds—estimated to be worth $1 quadrillion—beneath its crater. The surface of the moon alone reportedly contains 20 times more titanium and God is not poor. God is unfathomably, incomprehensibly rich. Now you know why the scripture speaks of the calamitous folly of a man not making "God his Strength" but trusting "in the abundance of his riches" (Psalm 52:7), or of the arrogance of trusting in "uncertain riches" (1 Timothy 6:17). It’s because God has mini-asteroids that hold items of more intrinsic value than all the gold in Fort Knox (which is God’s anyway).

However, you would think that God must be poor by the way some in Christianity vilify riches and extol poverty. While theologically assenting to His riches in glory, they still act as though God is extremely small in the disbursement of material provision to His children. After all, how could the LORD be so rich—and make others rich—if riches are so wrong, especially while so many are so poor? Why is it not wrong for God to be rich, especially since there seems to be such a wealth-gap between Him and humanity? To sum it up, it’s because every precious and semi-precious gem, every piece of gold or silver, every natural resource of every kind, and any created thing of any value at all came out of Him. God makes riches—riches don’t make Him. God is superior to wealth—wealth serves Him, He doesn’t serve wealth. God gives riches their proper purpose—riches don’t give God His purpose. God possesses great wealth without being obsessed with great wealth. In those traits, along with all others, we are to imitate Him (Ephesians 5:1).

It’s not wrong for God to be rich because He’s so rich in the things that matter most—the things that put all other kinds of riches in their proper perspective. The fact that He uses gold and precious gems for the same things that we use concrete and sheetrock for ought to tell us that there is something in Heaven far more valuable than gold and jewels—and that is the Godhead Himself. God is rich in mercy (Ephesians 2:4). He is abundant in compassion (Nehemiah 9:31). His righteousness and justice reach to the highest heavens (Psalm 71:19). He calls out to mankind with the same integrity, generously giving people richly all things to enjoy, piling on all the riches we can manage, and freely granting us everything that pertains to life through knowing Him (1 Timothy 6:17 MSG; 2 Peter 1:3 GW).

Yes, some are materially rich in a wrong way and through wrong means, but in reality they’re showing another side to the ugly face of poverty. The suffering of the poor is not the result of a “wealth-gap”; it is the result of poverty itself and cruel people who love money instead of loving God and others. The unfair treatment of the poor is in mankind’s injustice to one another, not in people’s economic success compared to one another. The unfair treatment of the poor is in the exploitation of people and the earth’s resources. It is not in people fully realizing their potential and sustainably using the earth’s resources.

God isn’t poor, nor does He canonize poverty. But although God is staggeringly wealthy, He does not oppress the poor, misuse resources, or stingily hoard His wealth. He gives people the power to create wealth (Deuteronomy 8:18). His blessing makes people rich (Proverbs 10:22). God is not only rich; He’s rich to all who call upon His Name (Romans 10:12).

Publishing the Word of God Through the Printed Word

The Publish the Word Outreach is a vital part of Jesse Duplantis Ministries that is evangelizing the earth for Christ. We're advancing the Gospel by preaching the Word of God through the printed word. We're using books, eBooks, prayer ministry correspondence, monthly Partner letters, emails, eBlasts, and one of the most effective tools of this outreach: Voice of the Covenant magazine.

For over 33 years, our free, full color, monthly ministry magazine has been impacting households and prisons for Jesus Christ. Today, we're sending nearly 150,000 copies of Voice of the Covenant throughout the world every month—an amazing increase considering our first mailing in 1981 was to just 200 households! And now with the JDM App and the JDM website, people are viewing the magazine online with their desktops, tablets, and mobile devices all over the world.
Testimonies from people everywhere (like the ones you see here) flood into our offices every day. They show how lives are being transformed through this outreach. Every praise report we receive encourages us to continue our mission to get more people into God’s kingdom through the printed word. We invite you to read the testimonies we’ve listed and learn how the Publish the Word Outreach is touching people all over the globe.

South Carolina

I was recently an inmate at the county jail in the city that I live in. A fellow inmate gave me an issue of Voice of the Covenant. The message was, Yea or Nay, Stay Away From the Gray. When I was finished, I just sat in my bunk and said, WOW!

I was dealing with that exact issue and I gave my heart to God right there in my bunk. Praise God! That’s not all. The very same night, four other inmates asked me to pray for them. Praise God!

I pray God continues to bless everything that you do. I am nineteen years old and love God with all of my heart.

Facebook

I’ve read Jesse’s book “The Everyday Visionary” from cover to cover, and when I need a spiritual answer for some of my friends’ problems, I can relate with something Jesse wrote and I try to share it with them. I think that’s what God wants us to do. Thanks for your teachings.

Australia

Thank you for being a blessing and feeding me the Word of God each month via your Partner letters and Voice of the Covenant magazine.

Florida

Thank you for all you do for God and us. Your Voice of the Covenant magazine and your monthly Partner letters help us so much. We are out of debt from the world! Our home is paid for and our cars are paid for! God is so good. Thank you for your prayers.

Texas

Jesse, my wife and I just read your book “Heaven: Close Encounters of the God Kind.” The book blessed us so that it is hard to describe. My wife got healed while reading it. She has had four miscarriages and felt so lost for not being able to carry a child to term. When you talked about children in Heaven, we knew that we would be able to be a family in Heaven. Your book lit my fire and I knew that God was not finished with us in the ministry yet. If I could give everyone I know a copy of your book, I would. I believe every word of your testimony and I am ready to spread the Gospel to everyone that God sends my way.

You can be a part of publishing the Word by sowing $100 into our Publish the Word Outreach. Your precious seed will send Voice of the Covenant into 20 more homes and prisons for an entire year. We’re believing that with your help, we will advance the Gospel by reaching more people and changing more lives through the printed word. God bless you!
It’s Your Job to Serve Your Generation (DVD)

YOU have a divine assignment—a job that is vitally important to your entire generation. In this dynamic message, Jesse will inspire you to visualize and realize God’s great purpose for your life. You’ll learn important faith-building principles that will position you to receive the abundant blessings you’ll need to accomplish what Jesus has called you to do. You’ll also discover how:

• Honest, useful work increases the world’s wealth and always lifts the standard of life higher
• Whatever your station is in life, you cannot escape the obligation to serve
• The person who faithfully serves his generation may be sure that his influence will never fade or die out
• And more!

Don’t underestimate your position in the kingdom of God. Embrace the unique anointing your Creator put inside of you and use it for His glory.

2013 Visionary Leadership Conference

This 3 DVD/CD Set, captured from the 2013 Visionary Leadership Conference, is packed full of life-transforming teaching by Jesse that will help you ADVANCE into the divine destiny God has for you.

(DVD SET) $37 USD
(CD SET) $20 USD
Jesse and I are always blessed by the marvelous testimonies that are sent to our ministry daily. Our hearts soar when we read great reports like these, like the new believer from Singapore walking “out of financial debt,” and the Tennessee couple who “saw just over ONE HUNDRED TIMES the amount” of their seed “come flowing back.” I pray that you will be encouraged and inspired as you read about these and other “glorious moments” that our God is doing in the earth today. “This is the Lord’s doing; it is marvellous in our eyes” (Psalm 118:23).

Singapore: I am a baby believer who got born again this year. This is my seventh year working with my company, and I have never had a promotion. But God is so good and gracious. I got promoted today, and my pay raise is more than our common bracket! All praise and glory to our Lord Jesus!

I thank God for you and Cathy and your ministry. Hallelujah! It shall come to pass that I walk out from my financial debt and step into the financial freedom life that Jesus came to give me. Glory to God!

Michigan: When you came to my church, you challenged us to believe God for 100-fold return in our giving in that offering. I am a real estate agent and I gave $100 instead of $20. That was a Thursday night. The following Tuesday God sent me the only client I’ve ever had who wanted to buy a $1,000,000 home. I sold it to them. Praise the Lord!

Tennessee: Each time the Lord has directed my wife and me to sow into JDM, without exception, we have always seen the harvest. My wife called me and shared that the Lord had prompted her that we needed to sow a seed into JDM again. We immediately obeyed, wrapped our faith around Matthew 19:29, and began to thank the Lord for the hundredfold return from this specific seed, NOW, IN THIS TIME.

Within eight days of our releasing this seed and subsequently releasing our faith, we saw just over ONE HUNDRED TIMES the amount of our seed into JDM come flowing back into our ministry. When we saw this breakthrough, the Lord of the Harvest spoke again and instructed us to sow an even larger seed and to again believe Him for Matthew 19:29 return harvests. And so, we did and are. We want to thank you for simply being faithful to the call and for being a ministry deeply rooted in such fertile soil.

Michigan: I want to express my deep thankfulness to you all, your ministry and, of course, most importantly, to our Father and His Son, Jesus. You all have had a deep impact on my life as a believer and as I think through this past year, I have to say that I have grown more this year than any other in my life. I owe a great deal of gratitude to you all for the countless hours of studying, preaching, and teaching to show me the way. Thank you!

I know you all have sacrificed your lives in service to the Lord for me and for others like me who are hungry to know more and to walk in the light. I also know that you would have it no other way than to give your all, just as you are doing. That is why I trust you to teach me. You have a pure, honorable, unshakable devotion that I can trust and value to emulate in my own life. Thank you!

Please know that you are appreciated. Your work has not been for nothing. I and countless others are proof of the fruit of your labors.
Canada: It wasn’t easy for my wife and I to answer God’s calling on our lives. It required a great deal of blind faith, trust, and obedience. We sold everything and moved from South Africa to Northern Canada to become missionaries to the First Nations People.

A year and a half later, we wouldn’t change this new home of ours for anything. We’ve made some strong friendships with these loving people. The amazing thing is, God has provided all our needs and all our monthly expenses are met. He has provided a house, a car, and a wonderful church family. Thank you, Jesse, for keeping us focused. You are a blessing.

Facebook: We had been struggling financially for most of our married life. Well, I received a 17% raise, the only raise given to anyone in our plant in seven years! Just this last week my wife took a leap of faith and changed her job. The result was a raise of $600 a month! For the first time in our married life, we are able to tithe, we are able to pay all our bills, have a food budget, a gas budget, and there will still be more left over! Often our beliefs aren’t evident until they are put to the test. Thank you for your teaching.

Alaska: For many months my husband and I have been studying finances God’s way and we are learning so much! We had gotten ourselves in debt over the years by not being obedient nor good stewards. Thankfully we’ve dug into the Word concerning finances! We’ve been believing and confessing for a commuter car for my husband and we wanted to save money on gas since he works 45 minutes from home. I felt prompted to sow a seed into your ministry specifically for our car. I obeyed and named it! A few hours later, we were looking online at cars. I saw one I knew God had arranged just for us—it was even well under our budget and exactly what we needed. Just 24 hours later we had the cash in hand to purchase the car debt free! Praise Jesus! Also, last year God supernaturally cancelled two of our mortgages! We are standing and believing for more debt to be paid off in Jesus name! Thank you, Jesse and Cathy. We are Partners and love your ministry and what you do for Jesus! We love your financial teachings as well.

Washington: We wanted to let you know how much of a blessing you have been to our seventeen-year-old son. He always talks about your DVDs and quotes Jesse’s phrases and scriptures that he uses. Thank you for touching our son’s life.

Jesus Has a Glorious Moment for YOU!

If you don’t know Jesus Christ as your personal Lord and Savior, we would like to introduce you to the GREATEST FRIEND you will ever have. As you say these simple words with your mouth and believe them in your heart, you will be born again:

JESUS, I invite You into my life. Forgive me of my sins and cleanse me with Your precious blood. I believe that You are the Son of God and You were sent by Him to die on the cross for me. I accept all that Your shed blood bought for me on the cross and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Congratulations! Through this simple prayer, God has forgiven you and delivered you out of the power of darkness and into the kingdom of His dear Son (Colossians 1:13-14). This is your glorious moment and all of Heaven is rejoicing with you!

Because we know it is very important that you let someone know about your decision to follow Jesus Christ, we want to hear from you. Not only do we want to rejoice with you about your glorious moment, but we also want to send you a very powerful booklet, Understanding Salvation, to help you in your new walk with Jesus. Just go to jdm.org or use the top portion of the envelope/order form in the center of this magazine and let us know if you would like the English or Spanish version—we will send it to you free of charge. Also, send us your prayer requests when you write because we want you to know that you will never be another day without prayer.

We Love You,

Jesse & Cathy
