Let's Go Change the World Together!

(MARK 16:15)
Reaching People and Changing Lives, One Soul at a Time”—with this goal in mind, Jesse Duplantis Ministries keeps moving forward. For over 36 years, we’ve been advancing the Kingdom of God and changing the world for Jesus every way we can. And here at JDM, EVANGELISM continues to be our priority!

People ask me all the time why I don’t slow down. I can’t! It’s God’s will and His Word for my life that keeps me going. The Word of God is like air to me, and the more of God’s Word I get inside of my soul, the more my faith, passion, and tenacity to “Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature” increases. Through this ministry that God has called Cathy and me to, we’re making great headway. Even so, we know that our job isn’t done until every person hears the Good News!

What’s our next step? A new aircraft that will allow us to preach the Good News anywhere in the world in one stop. When God gave me the vision for this new evangelistic tool that would enable us to go further with the Gospel with greater efficiency than ever before, Cathy and I got into position to stretch our faith for it. And based on what He’s done for this ministry in the past, we know that He will see this vision through. Hallelujah!

God is always breathing new ideas and vision into us. And He’s sent us the most amazing Partners and friends like you to join our vision. Every dollar sown into Jesse Duplantis Ministries goes directly to spreading the Gospel through worldwide television broadcasting, ministry audio and visual resources such as DVDs, CDs, and digital media, Christian literature including this monthly magazine and books, as well as our internet outreach and meetings around the globe.

I believe it’s God’s will to use each and every one of us to help those who are living in darkness find the Light of the World: Jesus Christ. It’s my prayer that God will minister greatly to you throughout the pages of this month’s Voice of the Covenant and that He will reveal His love and will for you in a deeper way. If you’re not already a Partner with JDM, I ask you to pray about joining our team. I know God is stepping us up to a higher level and that, together, we will change the whole world for Jesus!

I Love You,
Jesse

The World Trade Center buzzed like a city within a city on September 11, 2001. The famous Twin Towers topped the Empire State Building by over 100 feet. Each tower cost over $450 million to build and boasted 97 passenger elevators. The express elevators carried 55 passengers each and rose at the stomach-lurching speed of 1,600 feet per minute.

The towers were built with 200,000 tons of structural steel. There were 425,000 cubic yards of concrete used in its construction, and 43,600 windows gleamed in the morning sun. The amazing architecture of the 110-story towers allowed them to sway three feet in the wind without causing structural damage. For almost thirty years, they withstood horrific winds, blistering sun, snow, and ice.

They each withstood the impact of a 400,000-pound aircraft flying several hundred miles per hour. They could not withstand the intensity of the fire created when 24,000 gallons of jet fuel ignited.

So why, out of all the potential targets in America, did the terrorists choose the World Trade Center? They could have targeted the Hoover Dam, one of the greatest feats in civil engineering. Destroying the Hoover Dam would have stopped the flow of water and electricity to tens of millions of people. Yet, they did not.

They could have targeted our naval fleet, our submarines, our Air Force or Army.
They could have targeted your house.
Why didn't they?
There isn't enough money there.

The World Trade Center was the financial center of the world. A partial list of the hundreds of businesses in those towers paints a picture all its own: Asahi Bank, Ashikaga Bank, Baltic Oil, Bangkok Metropolitan Bank, Bank of America, Bank of Kinki, Bank of Yokohama, Boeing Aviation Technical Services, California Bank & Trust, Dun & Bradstreet, French Embassy Financial Services, Fukuoka City Bank, Hyakugo Bank, Shiga Bank, Sumitomo Bank, Toho Bank, Dow Jones & Company, First Commercial Bank, and Fuji Bank & Trust.

They didn't want to cut off our supply of power. They wanted to cut off our money supply. In the aftermath of the attack, New York City expected to lose an estimated 108,500 jobs. The total lost output to the New York City economy was estimated to be $16.9 billion. The labor compensation due to the lost jobs was estimated at $6.7 billion. None of those figures addressed the spillover effects of having the nation's airlines shut down or the effect on tourism.

For terrorists, it was all about money. That comes as no surprise since Satan and his crowd always want to control the wealth of the world. The terrorists wanted to hit us in the checkbook, and they did.

But they didn't succeed at crippling this nation because they don't understand prosperity. They think prosperity is about possessions.

They reasoned that if they hurt us financially, it would take away our possessions and we would be crippled. What they are too deceived to grasp is that prosperity is not about possessions, it’s about priorities.

While we are a prosperous nation, we aren’t wealthy because we have money.

We have something much more powerful than money.

We have the power to get wealth.

It’s a Message of Obedience

The power to get wealth is a biblical promise and that power will rest on this nation as long as the favor of God rests on it. Deuteronomy 8:18 (NKJV) says, “And you shall remember the L ORD your God, for it is He Who gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day.”

This verse clearly shows that the power to get wealth is linked with establishing God’s covenant on earth. That means our ability to get wealth is linked to our aligning ourselves with God’s priority, which is establishing His covenant.

Those terrorists must have been confounded when America picked herself up, dusted herself off, and began making money again. They fasted all through Ramadan and must have knelt until their knees were bloody, but they still didn’t understand that they couldn’t rob us of the power to get wealth. Only God can do that.

While you could almost feel sorry for terrorists who fight against God’s covenant plan, there is a sad similarity between their thoughts and attitudes and those of many Christians.

What are the similarities? Many Christians believe that prosperity is about possessions. That’s the reason a lot of folk get so riled up about the prosperity message. They think we’re preaching it so we can get stuff.

The simple truth is that the prosperity message is not a money message. Prosperity is an obedience message. God gives the power to get wealth, but the manifestation of obedience to that power is money. God gives the power to get healed, but the manifestation of obedience to that power is healing. God gives the power for us to get saved, but the manifestation of obedience to that power is salvation.

The Blessings of God are a Result of Choice, not Chance

I’m going to tell you something that you should write down and memorize. The blessings of God are a result of choice, not of chance.

“Brother Jesse, how can you say that?” someone asked. “I’ve just had rotten luck.”
No, you’ve made rotten choices.

God is saying the same thing today that He spoke through Moses in Deuteronomy chapter 30:

I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live; That you may love the LORD your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He is your life and the length of your days; and that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.

Deuteronomy 30:19-20 NKJV

I want to go back to verse 19 and read it again. “I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live.”

God is giving you a multiple choice question:

Which do you want?

A. Life

B. Death

Just in case your elevator doesn't go all the way to the top, He gave you the answer: Choose life!

You Don’t Gamble for Rags

The Bible makes it clear that the blessings of God are a result of choice, not chance. Yet, a lot of people don’t preach this very basic truth anymore. Why? They’re scared of Christian terrorists who’ll fly into them with accusations.

There is persecution that comes when you preach prosperity, but the Lord told me, “Jesse, don’t you back off that message because it takes money to get the Gospel to every corner of the world.”

“But Jesus was poor!” someone argued.

You’re living in a dream world if you believe that. Have you ever heard a gambler say, “I’m putting all my money on those torn-up, old clothes”?

They don’t gamble for rags. Yet the Bible says that Roman soldiers gambled for Jesus’ clothes. They must have looked pretty good. He also had a full-time staff of 12, and a part-time staff of 70.

Wouldn’t you say that the greatest blessing of God is salvation? Well, I wasn’t saved by chance; I was saved by choice. It was my will, but my mother and my wife wouldn’t quit praying for me. I believe that Mama is in God’s face right now saying, “Bless him, God! Bless him!” When a 245-pound Cajun woman tells you to bless, you bless!

So, it doesn’t matter if it is salvation, healing, or prosperity, all of God’s blessings operate by choice rather than by chance.

You Don’t Qualify for God’s Abundance Until You Become God’s Child

Part of the reason some of you are offended at the prosperity message is that you don’t know your lineage. I’ve studied mine, and you need to put some time into studying yours. You see, I am a child of God. I’m in the family. I’m in the lineage of Abraham. I’ve been adopted into royalty. I have been chosen by God. I’m in the executive branch of God’s government: Apostle, Prophet, Evangelist, Pastor and Teacher. I’ve got clout. I’m in the cabinet of Heaven. I have angels on assignment for me.

You don’t give those rights to a servant; you give them to a son.

I read the Bible and found out my rights. I have the right to be blessed in the city, blessed in the field, blessed coming in, and blessed going out. I have a document stained by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, Whom I serve.

I can hardly wait to get up every morning. I have an audience with the King of Kings! I am ushered right into His presence. I’m not blessed by chance. I’m blessed because I know that I am a joint heir with Jesus. It just doesn’t get better than that!

When you grasp the deal God is offering you, it’s a slam dunk. God says, “I put before you life and death; blessing and cursing. Don’t be a fool—chose life!”

Personally, I’m not too big on death, and I’m a very honest man. When I go to funerals, I have to watch myself. I stood beside a coffin one time when a woman came in sobbing. She said, “He looks good doesn’t he?”

I looked in the box. “No…he looks dead to me.”

I’ve never seen anybody look good dead. Not once.
They're dead! There's no life! So I highly recommend that when you get up every morning, you make the decision to choose life.

Every Spending Decision is a Spiritual Decision

When you look at money the way God views it, you will realize that prosperity is not about possessions, it's about priorities. When I prioritize everything in my life to line up with God's priorities, God's Word comes to pass—spiritually, physically, and financially. That means that every spending decision is a spiritual decision.

“Brother Jesse, are you against debt?”

No, I’m not against debt. I don’t think debt is a sin, but I think it can be dangerous. Proverbs 22:7 says, “The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.”

Those who borrow are servant to the lender. The bottom line about debt is this: If you can’t afford it, don’t get it! If you want out of debt, quit spending. Get the scissors and cut up the charge cards.

I borrowed money on a house years ago, and I’ll never forget all the papers I signed. They were all in the interest of the lender. Did you know that in most mortgages there is a clause that allows the lender to call your note? They don’t do it because they make three times the amount borrowed if you pay it out over 30 years. Suddenly, you become subject to the lender.

I began to believe God to be debt-free. People said I was crazy, but I began giving my way out of debt. I’ll never forget the day I paid off my last debt. It was a wonderful thing. But you can’t just stop believing God because you’re out of debt.

You can be out of debt and still be broke. You can’t go anywhere or do anything. A lot of people get out of debt and decide, I’m satisfied. That’s dangerous because if you’re out of debt and broke, you could still starve to death. I kept sowing my seed and God blessed us. After many, many years at the same bank, I walked in one day and they said, “How are you today, Dr. Duplantis?”

I looked around. “Do you know me?”

“Oh, yes.”

They knew me because I had so much money in the bank that if I decided to withdraw it, they would be in trouble. That’s when it dawned on me: They're working for me now!

When you look at me, you’re looking at a very wealthy man. Yes, I have money but that’s not what makes me wealthy. I’ve got something worth more than all the money in the Federal Reserve. I’m saved by the blood of the Lamb.

That’s great wealth.

God will continue to grant me the power to get wealth as long as my priorities are the same as His. God’s first priority is establishing His covenant on the earth.

Your Prosperity Tomorrow Will be Determined by Your Obedience Today

People believe some strange things. I’ve heard people say, “All I have to do is believe God. I don’t have to do anything, and He will drop success in my lap.”

Again, you’re living in a dream world if you believe that, too! The only place you find success before work is in the dictionary. You’ve got to work. Proverbs 13:4 says, “The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.”

My daughter said, “Daddy, why do you work all the time? You’re always watching NASDAQ. You’re always watching the Dow.”

“The soul of the diligent shall be made fat,” I said. If I’m operating in this world, I need to have an idea of what’s going on. I pray for wisdom, and I take the time to learn from people wiser than I. One thing I will not do, however, is take advice from the ungodly. Psalm 1:1 says, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly…”

I don’t care if a man is at the top of his field, if he isn’t saved, I won’t listen to his advice. That’s part of the reason I’ve never lost money. I’m diligent about finances and I’m careful about not taking counsel from unbelievers.

My staff knows that I will not waste one dime of the money our Partners put into this ministry. Someday I will have to stand before God and answer Him about how I handled the money He put in my hands.

I’ll never forget one little Polish grandma who could barely speak English. I knew for a fact that she was eating dog food when she pressed a five dollar bill into my hand and said, “I want to do something for God.”

I said, “God, I can’t.”

The Lord said, “Take her seed, it’s precious to Me.”

She has since gone home to be with the Lord, but I still think about her. She is a constant reminder to me that I’m responsible before God for what He has placed in my hands.

God’s Trust is a Great Blessing

An employee of mine came into my office one morning and put a $15,000 check on my desk. She said, “What account do you want me to put this into?”

“Why are you asking me? You’ve never asked before.”

“I just don’t know where it goes.”

“Leave it on my desk and by noon I’ll know what to do with it,” I said.

I asked the Lord what He wanted done with the money, but He simply said that He would show me. I went on about my business and later Brother Copeland called. God had told him to buy an airplane for another ministry, and for the first time in the history of Kenneth Copeland Ministries, the Lord gave him different orders. God said, “Jesse will help.”

“How much money is needed to get that airplane?” I asked Kenneth.

“Fifteen thousand dollars,” he said.

I sat there for a heartbeat and stared at that check.

“You’ll have it by FedEx tomorrow.”

I want you to know that it blessed me that my employee knew by the Spirit of God to bring the check to me. It blessed me to help give a plane to that ministry. But what touched me the most is that God said, “Jesse will help.”

That ministered to me because it meant that God trusted me.

The Lord could have easily provided that fifteen thousand dollars through Kenneth Copeland Ministries, but He let me plant seed toward my next aircraft.

And He trusted me to give by revelation, not by reason.

I have not stopped thanking God for that.

Thanksgiving is a vital key to releasing God’s supernatural power in your life. Ephesians 5:20 says, “Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father by Him.”

Thanksgiving is vitally important to God. It is the key to releasing His supernatural power in your life. Sometimes I say, “Lord, did I say thank you enough today?”

Often He says, “Yeah, but say it one more time, Jesse.”

Make Evangelism a Priority

One of the most important lessons I’ve learned about money is this: If you don’t master your money, your money will master you.

Luke 12:15 says it this way, “And He said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man’s life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.”

In other words, prosperity is not about possessions, it’s about priorities. Wealth is given to those who make evangelism a priority. And wealth carries with it a grave responsibility. I’ve traveled with Kenneth Copeland to some of the most remote islands in the world to preach the Gospel. We were on an island preaching in the pouring rain when the lights went out.

Brother Copeland said, “Get me a flashlight,” and kept on preaching.

I love to preach the Gospel, but when I hear we’ve got a meeting scheduled, I think, Oh God, where?

You’ve never lived until you’ve preached the Word of God in Cold Bay, Alaska. It was so cold that the man who took my bags had one primary responsibility—to keep the sewer line from freezing. From there, we flew to the Marshall Islands. I thought, Thank You, God, I’m gonna get warm.

It was 105 degrees with 100 percent humidity. It felt like hell. The electric organ corroded in two hours, and they had to blow it dry during the sermon so that they could play it for the salvation altar call. Those people were unable to give enough to pay for the expenses of a meeting like that, but prosperity isn’t about possessions. It’s about priorities, and saving the souls of people in Cold Bay, Alaska, the Marshall Islands, and in other remote areas of the world is a high priority with God.

What’s your priority? ☯

Glorious Moments
with Cathy

God is doing so many glorious miracles in the lives of people through JDM! I can never praise Him enough for the wonderful way in which He has touched lives for the past 36 years. Psalm 106:2 (NLT) says, “Who can list the glorious miracles of the Lord? Who can ever praise Him enough?”

Since 1978, Jesse and I have been joyously bringing the Gospel to the world and seeing results like those listed in this issue of Voice of the Covenant, which is being sent to over 150,000 households around the world this month. As you read each amazing testimony, I pray that you will be encouraged to stand firm in faith for your glorious moment.

Kenya/Facebook: Praise our Lord Jesus Christ. I wanted to inform you that your profile updates have really changed my life. I’ve been watching your teachings on family TV here in Kenya and I am really blessed. God bless you and keep up this good work of making the world a better place and winning more souls for God.

North Carolina: I want to let you know how much your ministry has impacted the life of my family. My son has been listening to your teachings since he was a little boy. When he was three, he was diagnosed as being a “high-functioning” autistic. Since that time, he has accomplished so much that his teachers love and admire his respect for God. He loves your teachings so much that he uses your magazines as posters for his room. Thank you so much for allowing God to use you. Thank you so much for all you do!

California: I have been unemployed for a few weeks. I sowed seeds into Jesse Duplantis Ministries and a few days later I received a $5000 check out of the blue! JDM has good sowing grounds.

South Carolina: My husband and I just recently started giving again to JDM for God’s Kingdom. When we sent in that seed, we prayed again in faith that we would sell a rental house we had been trying to sell for two years. In less than one month, the rental house sold! We did not have to settle for a sale ten thousand under what we wanted. God answered our prayers with a buyer who agreed to our contract terms. The difference in price was one hundred times our gift to JDM. Our Father God is blessing His people!

Georgia: You have inspired me for years! I follow you on Facebook and your weekly broadcast. Please keep up the great work you are doing. You touch so many lives daily. You were a lifesaver while on the road for years. Thank you for your faithfulness and for inspiring and mentoring me.

Facebook: It watched your video on Close Encounters of the God Kind that led me to being saved in January of 2006! Thank you for inspiring me and showing me truth through that video message.
Virginia: Almost thirteen years ago, I was diagnosed with stage 3 melanoma cancer. I had surgery where they removed eighteen lymph nodes under my right arm, discovering that fifteen were malignant. We have family in the Dallas, Texas area and my brother-in-law was impressed to invite us to the Believers’ Convention. I attended Gloria’s Healing School, after which you laid hands on me and prayed for me. I am grateful on a daily basis for God’s grace and healing touch in my life and joyfully share my testimony to others that need encouragement. Thanks for being a willing vessel for God to use in bringing about my healing. I am so grateful and so blessed!

Facebook: I had to stop and thank you for loving us by creating a Facebook page to get the Word out to us. Thank you for yielding yourselves to CHRIST JESUS to encourage us believers in Christ even more, and thank you for reaching out to those who aren’t yet in the fold. Thank GOD for HIS GRACE that HE graced you with. GOD has been blessing me to experience HIM and HIS GRACE in a way I never knew was possible. I am in tears right now as I am typing this to you. I didn’t want to stay silent anymore and not let you know that God is breaking the chains of bondage that have had me since I was a little girl. Thank you, Jesse Duplantis, for being a down-to-earth preacher who laughs and makes me laugh, but GOD gets HIS point through to me. I just thank Jesus for you and Cathy! Both of you are an inspiration to me! I also thank GOD for the team members that are behind the scenes keeping up the Facebook page, the website page, the prayer warriors, and all the many others that make up the ministry.

New York: I can’t thank you enough for everything you have done in my life. I’ve been fighting loneliness and depression in my life, but whenever I turn on your DVDs, it’s like having another family member by my side and I don’t feel so alone anymore. I love laughing with you and being inspired by you. I’m still getting to know Jesus. I got saved through your ministry last year at the age of twenty-seven. Thank you for bringing joy and laughter into my life.

Tennessee: I wanted you to know that I am free! I have been mean and bitter toward people for about six months. I found a DVD that I got back in 2008 or 2009 called Strike 1, Strike 2, Strike 3—Satan’s Out. I was impressed of the Lord to watch it, so I did. I laughed till I cried and tears streamed down my face. When it was over the Lord said, “There, it’s over!” I realized that I was not mad, mean, or bitter anymore. The laughter from watching that DVD had broken the power of Satan off of my life. Glory! Satan tried to steal the Word that was sown, but Praise God, he did not get it! I was able to protect my heart with all diligence. I’m free! Free! Free! I’m soft and sweet and loving toward people again, the way I have always been. Thank you for letting God use you in such a wonderful way that something so simple as the laughter from watching your DVD could break my chains. I love you and your call to the body of Christ. It’s so wonderful to be free again!

North Carolina: Thank you for the message “Living in the Faith Zone” in your Voice of the Covenant magazine. There was so much uplifting information in that article. I really needed that message to help me to grow. I thought I needed help from others and the Department of Social Services to make it. After reading the article, what I realize now is that all I have to do is activate the measure of faith that I have. Keep teaching scriptures and preaching messages!

Louisiana: While waiting on my appointment at the hospital, I came across the March 2014 Voice of the Covenant magazine. It was a blessing to read the article “Living in the Faith Zone.” I have never laughed so hard reading an article. The people in the waiting room thought I lost my mind! The power of God fell upon me and gave me what I had been searching for. As you know, the Holy Ghost is a perfect gentleman. I was so blessed with the information this article produced; I shared it with my co-workers and family. I just had to let you know. Thank you and may the blessing of our Lord and Savior continue to use you to touch lives for the Kingdom.
Friend, if you’re struggling and don’t see a way out, I want you to know that your life can be changed. The first step is knowing Jesus. If you don’t know Him as your personal Lord and Savior, I would be honored to introduce you to Him. As you say these words, if you’ll believe them with your heart, you will be born again (Romans 10:9-10).

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of all my sins. I ask You to come into my heart and change me. Make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that You died on the cross for me. I thank You for loving me enough to die for me and I accept You as my Lord and Savior! Receive me into the family of God! In Your name I pray, Amen.

If you just prayed this prayer, congratulations! You are a “new creature” in Christ and, as 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, “...old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.” You have a brand new life of peace and victory to look forward to. From this day on, Jesus is at your side to protect you and empower you to live blessed in every area of your life. Glory!

Please let us know of your decision to follow Christ and we will send you a free booklet, Understanding Salvation, to help you begin your new life as a believer. You can go to jdm.org or use the top portion of the envelope/order form in the center of this magazine. Just let us know if you would like the English or Spanish version. Remember, you are a chosen child of God and a joint heir with Jesus Christ. I’m praying for you! – Jesse
Are you visiting us on social media? Here are some of my past posts that I pray will encourage you. Visit us daily and feed your faith!

Facebook: You don’t have to try and figure out how to make ends meet. The Bible says, “God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19). We serve a Master Who will never be surprised by our needs. He won’t be shocked and unable to come up with an answer for us. He made us and specializes in helping us. But He requires that we go to Him in faith and have patience while we wait for our answer.

Facebook: We need to realize that until we allow Christ to empty our hands of the meager, He can’t fill them with abundance. Remember, what you have now may not be enough, but if you’ll give what you have to Christ, He’ll multiply it back to you.

Twitter: God thinks the world of you!

Twitter: What the world claims is useless, God can use for His glory!

Twitter: Things would be a whole lot easier if you would just start talking to your mountain, instead of hiking to the summit. (Mark 11:23-24)

Twitter: God has given you overcoming power! So put on your armor and start overcoming!

It’s God’s plan to use each and every one of us to change the world for Him. How can God use YOU to make a change in someone’s life?

We posted this question on social media and received countless responses that have ignited our faith. Let them encourage you to believe God for the miraculous in your life, too!

Jerry: I have a home Bible study group. I was ordained two weeks ago. Very excited about how God will use me to bless others!

Shiray: He uses me in my recovery groups to show the changes He’s made in me!

Amazing Testimonies from Broadcast Earth Outreach

JDM is reaching people and changing lives for Jesus!

Australia: Praise God for you and your boldness. You are such a blessing in a time of mediocrity. You have reached my seven and eight-year-old children in such a powerful and memorable way. The world needs more Jesses to have the conviction and the upfront love of God and faith.

We get up and record your broadcast at 5am every morning that you are on and we watch and re-watch it. Praise God for using people like you, for we are a family that is just like you: passionate and loud about our passion. We are just starting off on this incredible journey that God is taking us on and we thank you for helping us on our way. Thank God for working miracles through you.

Oklahoma: Thank you for helping me to laugh. I've been watching you online for the past two years as part of my Sunday Word meals. Recently I started watching you on YouTube during my lunchtime and your shorts “A Merry Heart” have lifted me up and carried me through my workdays. I wish I'd done this sooner! Now I'm lighter and happier at work no matter what goes on.

Tennessee: I watch your TV ministry before I go to church on Sunday mornings. You have been teaching on telling God what you want. He already supplies all our needs by His Word. I needed to get another car. I was truly blessed with what I already had, but the car was fourteen years old. I thanked God repeatedly for my fourteen-year-old car. I stood on the Word and confirmed that I had a need and He would supply that need. Then I asked Him for what I wanted. A week and a half later, I am the owner of a 2014 Ford Focus. I am so blessed!

Facebook: Jesse, you have helped me become a true follower of Jesus. Thank you so much for your posts. You are always there just when I need you!

West Virginia: We stood in agreement with you for our finances when you spoke the word on your broadcast. Since then, we have received several financial blessings! It’s as if money just falls from the sky. We have also had two healings in the last month.

What’s God’s intention for generosity? What’s His real aim? Those questions take me back to a story Dr. Jesse Duplantis told me about the early days of his ministry. The year was 1979 and he was invited to minister during the evening services of a weeklong “Jesus Festival.” The festival was to be held on a remote mountainside in West Virginia. So, just before he made the final leg of the journey to the isolated festival grounds, he stopped at a diner for lunch. While he was eating, he noticed a man sitting across the diner from him and the Holy Spirit said, “Jesse, after you pay for your meal and leave a tip, I want you to give that man all of your money.”

At the time, Brother Jesse had $50, which was worth a lot more in 1979 than it is today. It was the money he’d planned to use for his meals during the week of the Jesus Festival and it was all he had. Now, remember, this was before ATMs and even if he’d been able to send for money from home, it would never arrive in time. Brother Jesse knew that once his $50 was gone, there would be no convenient method of replacing it and no money to buy food. However, he also knew God had spoken and he was prepared to fast meals in order to obey God.

He replied, “Lord, I’ll do it. You’ve been very good and gracious to me and I’m grateful, but You’re going to have to take care of me because this is all I have.” After settling up with the waitress at the diner, he walked over to the man and said, “You don’t know me and I don’t know you, but the Lord told me to give you all of my money.” He laid his remaining money on the table and walked out of the diner.

That night after he ministered, one of the festival organizers approached him and asked, “Do you have any products you would like to sell? If so, we can set up a product table for you.”

Brother Jesse answered, “Yes, I have some eight-track tapes I’d like to sell, but I need to go to my vehicle and get them.” While he was getting the tapes, the thought kept going through his mind, Maybe this is... the way God will replace my $50 and feed me.

When he returned to his product table, a steaming plate of roast beef, mashed potatoes, green beans, and a fresh baked roll was waiting to greet Brother Jesse. Along with it came a glass filled with crushed ice and his favorite soft drink. He thought, How did they know I like crushed ice? Maybe this isn’t for me. Someone probably set it on my table and they’re coming back to get it later.

After some time had gone by and no one came to retrieve the food, Brother Jesse asked, “Does this meal belong to someone else?”

“It’s sitting on your table, so it must be yours,” came the reply, “but where’d it come from? The only thing we have at the festival is a small concession stand that serves hot dogs and burgers. You have a full home-cooked meal!”

Brother Jesse didn’t know where it came from, but it tasted like it came from Heaven. At every mealtime thereafter, he was met with a home-cooked meal at his product table. The next night he found chicken-fried steak, mashed potatoes with country gravy, corn on the cob, and another roll. And every meal was accompanied with a soft drink full of crushed ice to wash it down.

It became a sign and wonder to everyone around. Were the angels bringing Jesse Duplantis food? A longhaired young man who was ministering at the day sessions asked, “Dear brother, where are you getting all of this good food?” His name was Benny Hinn. Brother Jesse replied, “Benny, I don’t know where it’s coming from, but I’m grateful!”

It wasn’t until eight years later that Dr. Duplantis found out where the meals had come from. While preaching at a conference, a woman and her husband approached him and she asked, “Did you like my cooking?”

“What do you mean?” he replied.

“Do you like how I cook?” she asked.

Trying to remember if he had ever met this woman before, much less if he’d ever eaten her cooking, it suddenly dawned on him: she was the one! She had to be the one who’d cooked all those meals for him at the Jesus Festival.

“You’re the one!” he exclaimed. “You’re the one who fed me at the Jesus Festival in 1979. Why did you do it?”

She replied, “I saw you out of my camper window and the Lord told me to feed you every single meal that week. No one else, just you.”

Dr. Duplantis gratefully thanked her for her obedience and generosity, but never told her that on the way to the festival he had given away all of his money and had no way to buy food. While thanking her he thought, It always moves me that someone would give me anything—just the fact that God would care for me in that way touches me so much.

As it happened, in the same year while he was ministering at another event, the man from the diner to whom he’d given all of his money back in 1979 came up to him and said, “Brother Jesse, I can’t tell you how much your gift meant to me. I’m a pastor, but on that day I was determined to leave the ministry. It seemed that none of my prayers were ever answered and I was convinced that God didn’t care for me as He did others. When someone who didn’t even know me came up and said the Lord told them to give me all of their money, I knew I must matter to God and that He cared about me. I stayed in the ministry and pastor a successful church.”

I have to admit; when I first heard this story, I was wondering if it was angels who were feeding Dr. Duplantis on that mountainside in 1979. However, when I found out it was a person—a person who’d done the same thing Dr. Duplantis had done in the diner, a person who’d noticed someone across the way and obeyed God with a generous and kind heart—the story meant even more to me.

This sort of generosity and kindness is all too rare. I’m convinced that many of the delays we see in answered prayer are because people do not notice others and do not yield to God’s impulses of generosity. It’s sad, because this manner of generosity is life-changing.

You see, this story captures God’s intention for generosity. In the story everyone was either deeply moved to act generously or deeply moved by generosity. Generosity is not just about the giving or the acts of kindness; it does something to our hearts. Generosity is transformational. It’s capable of changing everyone and everything it touches.

In Genesis 12:2, the Lord says to Abraham, “And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.”

Notice that the end result of the blessing in Abraham’s life was, “Thou shalt be a blessing.” The Hebrew word translated as “be” in Genesis 12:2 also means “become.” According to Noah Webster’s 1828 Edition of the American Dictionary of the English Language, the word “become” means, “To pass from one state to another; to enter into some state or condition... by assuming or receiving new properties or qualities, additional matter, or a new character.” When you’re blessed, it’s not just your possessions or status that change—you change. When you’re blessed, your person becomes an identical match to the blessing that’s been imparted to you.

It’s the same Hebrew word translated as “became” in Genesis 2:7: “And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.”

Like Abraham, you are blessed to become a blessing (Galatians 3:14). As stated before, the blessing of God is not just about prospering materially; it’s about receiving a new character and becoming a different person than you were before. The blessing of God is not just about receiving an impartation; it’s also about transformation—it’s meant to change your heart, your mind, and your very life.

According to the Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament, the Hebrew word for blessing means a “verbal blessing…to endue with power for success, prosperity, fecundity, longevity, etc…Its major function seems to have been to confer abundant and effective life upon something.” However, this is extremely important, “Whatever may have been the ancient near eastern conception of the source of blessing, the Old Testament sees God as the Only Source…As a result, those who are wrongly related to God can neither bless nor be blessed and no efficacious word can alter this. Those who are blessed manifest God’s hesed and emet. To rely upon the existence of the covenant between oneself and God without manifesting His Nature is to (attempt to) bless oneself and to court disaster.”

Did you notice those Hebrew words “hesed” and “emet”? They mean “lovingkindness” and “truth.” In other words, you cannot expect the abundant life that an impartation of God’s blessing brings without also desiring the godly character that the transformational quality of God’s blessing brings. God’s abundant generosity and lovingkindness towards us are meant to produce abundant generosity and lovingkindness from us towards others.

I once heard someone say, “It’s not just the tithe that God wants; it’s what the tithe produces in our hearts that God wants.” The prophets understood lovingkindness as one of God’s central desires from His people. While many people associate religion with the performance of rituals or liturgy, the prophet Hosea taught that God’s priorities were different: “For I desire lovingkindness (hesed) not sacrifice.” (Hosea 6:6 The Tanach)

So what’s the real aim of generosity? It’s not complicated. It’s what God has always desired: He wants to love you, He wants your love, and He wants you loving others. In a very real sense, it ends up with all of us Reaching People, Changing Lives, One Soul at a Time.

Throughout the Bible we are told about a God that specializes in doing the impossible. He created the world out of nothing, hung it on nothing, and it became something. When the Children of Israel were in the wilderness and had nothing to eat, He gave them something—manna from Heaven. During a great drought, God sent ravens to feed the Prophet Elijah and turned his nothing into something. And when a destitute widow had nothing but a little pot of oil, God supernaturally turned her nothing into something. Now that is power!

Jesus was the same way. He never freaked out when multitudes of people stopped by unexpectedly for lunch, or if the fishing business was bad, or when taxes had to be paid. He supernaturally multiplied food, commanded the fish of the sea to swim into the disciples’ empty net, and in every situation He abundantly supplied every need. In John 10:10, He said, “...I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows).”

Just like that widow woman with nothing but a pot of oil, you may think that your situation is hopeless and that nothing can get you out of the mess that you are in. But God is not limited to natural ways to meet your need. He moves in a much higher realm. He looks for opportunities to help you turn your nothing into something.

Stop Looking at Nothing—DO Something!

Time after time, the disciples saw Jesus do the miraculous. The King James Bible says in Acts 10:38 that He “…went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with Him.” Blind eyes had to see, lame legs had to walk, and deaf ears had to hear because God had anointed Him with the Holy Ghost and with power. Each situation He encountered was another opportunity for God to be glorified. He was never overwhelmed by circumstances. He overcame every situation, including a cruel death on the cross of Calvary.

On two different occasions the disciples saw Jesus feed multitudes with a few small fish and loaves of bread. Yet, when they were hungry and had one loaf to split between only twelve of them, they failed to do something about it. They focused on their lack of bread and did not remember the power of God that was available to them to multiply the bread. Jesus wanted them to learn how to turn their nothing into an abundant supply.

Let’s read the story in Mark chapter eight:

Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.
And He charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

And when Jesus knew it, He saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto Him, Twelve.

And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

And He said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

Mark 8:14-21 KJV

Many people see what they have as nothing and decide to give up and do nothing. The road to success is dotted with many tempting parking places, but God wants us to understand His principles and begin to do something! The secret of success is to be like a duck: smooth and unruffled on top, but paddling furiously underneath.

You may be asking, “What can I do?” Many times, God’s answer to you will be a question, “What do you have?”

When your situation looks hopeless, you don’t have to stand around and do nothing. God can use whatever is in your hand. You may think your hands are empty, but they are not. Your hands can always pray, praise, sow, and serve.

By an act of your will, you can change your defeat into victory. You can decide to obediently follow the leading of the Spirit of God and do what is in your hand to do. You see, faith without works is nothing, but faith with works is something.

There are three kinds of people in the world: the Wills, the Won’ts, and the Can’ts. The Wills accomplish everything, the Won’ts oppose everything, and the Can’ts fail in everything! But you don’t have to lose at the game of life. You can become a winner!

A winner says, “Let’s find out.” A loser says, “Nobody knows.” When a winner makes a mistake, he says, “I was wrong.” When a loser makes a mistake, he says, “It wasn’t my fault.” A winner goes through a problem; a loser goes around it and never gets past it. A winner makes commitments; a loser makes empty promises. A winner says, “I’m good, but not as good as I ought to be.” A loser says, “I’m not as bad as a lot of other people are.” A winner tries to learn from those who are superior to him. A loser tries to tear down those who are superior to him. A winner says, “There ought to be a better way to do it.” A loser says, “That’s the way it’s always been done here.”

I heard the story about a congregation that met to pray for rain to release a long dry spell. The preacher looked severely at his flock and said, “Brothers and Sisters, y’all know why we are here. Now, what I want to know is, where are your umbrellas?”

Real Bible faith sees the invisible, believes the incredible, and receives the impossible. When you sow, expect a harvest every time. When you pray, expect a result every time. Don’t just tell others about the labor pains you are going through, show them the baby. Don’t stop believing until you deliver! God always has a plan to help you turn your nothing into something.

God’s Plan to Multiply and Increase

I love what the Word has to say about God’s plan to multiply and give increase to you and me—His children. Let’s read what it says in Deuteronomy chapter seven:

Know, recognize, and understand therefore that the Lord your God, He is God, the faithful God, Who keeps covenant and steadfast love and mercy with those who love Him and keep His commandments, to a thousand generations…

And He will love you, bless you, and multiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your land, your grain, your new wine, and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the young of your flock in the land which He swore to your fathers to give you…

And the Lord will take away from you all sickness….

Deuteronomy 7:9,13,15

God has always had a plan to bless and prosper His creation. Adam and Eve were told to be fruitful and multiply. Abraham was promised a great increase that was compared to the stars in the heavens. Moses acknowledged God’s increase to the Children of Israel and prayed in Deuteronomy 1:11, “May the Lord, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are and bless you as He has promised you!” There are no limitations when it comes to God's ability and desire to multiply and increase every area of life.

I don't believe they were just talking about having a bunch of kids when they heard the promise of increase. Parents that are unable to feed, clothe, and provide for their children are miserably heartbroken people. The thousandfold increase would have been a curse without an equal increase in wealth to meet their daily needs.

God Supplies Your Seed

God has promised to provide the seeds that you are to sow. 2 Corinthians 9:10-11 says:

\text{And [God] Who provides seed for the sower and bread for eating will also provide and multiply your resources for sowing and increase the fruits of your righteousness [which manifests itself in active goodness, kindness, and charity]. Thus you will be enriched in all things and in every way, so that you can be generous, and [your generosity as it is] administered by us will bring forth thanksgiving to God.}

Now, when God reveals what you are to do with the seed that He gives, it is vitally important that you are obedient. Otherwise, you will bind His ability to meet your need.

You see, the principles that God established in His Word are designed to guide you out of the desert and into the land of milk and honey. Even when things look their worst, our God specializes in making a way where there is no way.

When the Children of Israel came out of Egypt, they were happier, healthier, and wealthier than they had ever been in their lives. God gave them silver, gold, and land so that they might observe His statutes and keep His laws.

Psalm 105:37,43-45 says:

\text{He brought [Israel] forth also with silver and gold, and there was not one feeble person among their tribes… And He brought forth His people with joy, and His chosen ones with gladness and singing. And gave them the lands of the nations [of Canaan], and they reaped the fruits of those peoples’ labor, That they might observe His statutes and keep His laws [hearing, receiving, loving, and obeying them]. Praise the Lord! (Hallelujah!)}

A few years ago, I read in Exodus 24 about how Moses stood in the presence of God for seven days and seven nights. I had never noticed it before, but it wasn't until after seven days of silence that God spoke to Moses. Exodus 25 begins, “And the Lord said….”

I'm certain that Moses was hanging on for that first word from God. What vitally important information would the Creator impart to him on the smoking Mount Sinai? He must have been listening intently to hear the first words to him from the lips of God. What would they be?

“…Take for Me an offering….”

I don't think Moses said, “What? These people have been slaves for four hundred years without a penny to their name. And now, just when they are starting to get ahead, You want me to pass the offering bucket. Are You sure, God?”

Moses, full of thanksgiving to God for delivering the people out of bondage, was obedient to God. The Hebrew children grew up hearing about the principles of giving and receiving. They were ready to be blessed, along with faithful Abraham, and inherit the promise of abundance.

The Bible tells us that those that were of a willing heart brought their offering to God. His plan to start the flow of increase for His children could not begin until they were obedient and wise to sow the seed that was provided by God. Only then could they expect the promise of increase to work for them. “But you shall [earnestly] remember the Lord your God, for it is He Who gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day” (Deuteronomy 8:18).

Now, some people cringe or get offended when it is offering time. But giving is God's plan to set His people free from lack and bring them into abundance. Just as it was essential to the success of the Hebrew children to have a willing heart to give, it is equally important to your future success. “For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord… to give you a future and a hope” (Jeremiah 29:11 NLT).

There is so much to learn in the Word of God concerning giving and receiving. But the most important thing to remember is that you don't have to begin by yourself. God is faithful and He will supply the seed for you to sow. Now don't be foolish and eat your seed. Regardless of how insignificant it may seem to you, when that seed is planted by faith in the fertile soil of God, harvest is on its way. It's part of God's plan to help you turn your nothing into something!

I learned to keep hold of the vision even though all hell comes against to thwart it…to write it, to read it & run with it, and not to let go, but to guard it…and to trust even when it is hard because of the enemy’s attacks against you. So grateful for the pouring out of your hearts, and for sharing about your life as you always do. I always find your conferences very rich and never want them to end. Thank you for all you are doing for HIS kingdom. Just sooo glad you are out there for us all!

30 • Voice of the Covenant
Is one soul worth more than the whole world to you? It is to Jesus, and it is to us, too! For over 36 years, we’ve been going non-stop, rescuing souls from the pit of hell and introducing the lost to Christ in meetings across the globe. We’ve passionately obeyed the Lord’s command to, “…Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature,” and our commitment has never wavered.

Throughout 2014, we’ve been traveling throughout the United States and other areas of the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We’re witnessing the greatest harvest of souls known to the world and, through the Go Ye Outreach, we’re getting the job done!

Please pray with us that our Go Ye Outreach will take the Gospel further than we’ve ever gone before. We also invite you to read the testimonies here and see how God is using the Go Ye Outreach to reach people and change lives, one soul at a time!

Indiana:
I was in your service in Muncie, Indiana. I had a bone spur and a cyst on my wrist. Christ healed my right hand. Now I don’t need surgery! Praise the Lord!

Facebook:
You led me back to the Lord at a meeting I went to in Bakersfield, California. I am now on fire for the Lord and reading the Bible for the first time in my life. I don’t feel like having a drink ever again. A few years ago, I tried to take my life and the Lord brought me back to life, giving me a second chance, and you are the one who encouraged me to live for the Lord again.

Australia:
My husband and I have enjoyed your ministry for some time. You recently came to our church, Hillsong Church, and we absolutely LOVED the word you brought. Everyone has been talking about it and faith has exploded.

I recall the first time I heard you speak. I was invited to a Believers’ Convention in Brisbane. You got up and began to speak and I heard the voice of the Lord. I was completely undone and have never been the same.

God truly does love Jesse and guess what? He loves me, too, and the other 7 billion people on the planet. They just need to hear Him! Thanks for all you do and all the sacrifices you make.
